Arranged Marriage Stories Chitra Banerjee

Arranged Marriage, her first collection of stories, spent five weeks on the San Francisco Chronicle bestseller list and garnered critical acclaim that would have been extraordinary for even a more established author. For the young girls and women brought to life in these stories, the possibility of change, of starting anew, is both as terrifying and filled with promise as the ocean that separates them from their homes in India.

Arranged Marriage is a collection of short stories by Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni. The phrase arranged marriages - so peculiar to the Indian (Asian?) society - evokes (incorrectly some would say) images of demure brides being packed to unappreciative grumpy boys who want slaves more than they do spouses. And perhaps at some point of
