TRUE MATES: The Complete Series by Olivia Arran Wow this is such an awesome compilation of shifter stories. Each story is made up of alpha shifters who find their one true mate, but true love is never an easy path. And we read about their struggles, the dangers they encounter and the moments it all comes together.

True Mates; The Complete Series by Olivia Arran

This is a great bargain that pulls together the entire Dragon Shifter's Mates series of four books and a novella at the end that gives us more information of what happened next to Ren, her mates and their combined peoples. Well written it is a joy to read and you will be pulled into the story as it progresses.

This is the third in the Verian Mates series. For the reader to fully appreciate the series I suggest reading them in order. Although this is another human/alien abduction for the first time in the series the human is not slated for breeding. She is a scientist looking for a vaccine to help the Verians and her n=hybrid friend.

Zaine (Verian Mates, #1) by Stella Sky

A box set of the Verian Mates Standalone Series containing all four of the full length novels. Individually these books are great reads but together they are fantastic. Zaine This was a great story that keep me enthralled until the end. Two people from different planets so strongly attracted to each other that they are tempted to break all the rules.
